Property Manager Website Testing

Test	Expected outcome	Actual outcome	What needs to be done?
Registering email address	Estate agents can register on the website using the firebase's email authentication login	It does not support email login	Add firebase authentication email feature
Log in with email address	There should be an email authentication firebase button	It does not support email login	Add firebase authentication email feature
Log in with google account	successfully logging-in via google login	The outcome is as expected	Nothing
Automatic login (remember your login account)	The application authentication login remembers the user phone and automatically logs in	The application authentication login displays all the email addresses that are prestored in the mobile and gives the user the option to pick one of them	The outcome is better than what was expected
Logo/button	Estate agent could press the logo to take them to the home page	It does work as expected	Nothing
View customers	User can view customer by clicking onto the customers page	It does work as expected	Nothing
Create customer	User can create a new customer by clicking the create customer button on the customer page	It does work as expected	Nothing
Click on the customer button	User could click on customer details button to view their details	It does work as expected	Nothing

Add property button	User can create a new property and add it to the database by clicking the create property button on the properties page	It does work as expected, however it doesn't ask for as many details as the mobile application.	Add all details as the mobile application
click on the advert button	The advert is displayed with the relevant property's details	The outcome is as expected	Nothing
Account button	Estate agent could click on the account button to view their account details	When the account button is pressed, an empty window is shown	Nothing
click on log out button	The system logout the estate agent and take the user to the authentication page	It does work as expected	Nothing
Navigation bar colours	The page the user is currently on should be highlighted darker on the navigation bar	Yes, this works on all pages	Nothing additional needed
Home icon	When clicking the home icon, it directs the user back to the homepage	Yes, this works	Nothing additional needed
Properties drop down list	Clicking a property on the properties page opens a drop-down list of all property details	Yes, this works	Nothing
Customers drop down list	Clicking a customer on the customers page reveals all customer details	Yes, this works	Nothing
Image enlarging	Clicking an image on the on the properties page enlarges it	Yes, this works on the properties page and adverts page	nothing
Adverts open in a new tab	Clicking on the view advert button opens the property advert in a new tab	Yes, this works	nothing